

Kern River Valley Historical Society

P.O. Box 651
Kernville, CA 93238

760-376-6683

What Is a Junior Docent?

Are You a Student 14 - 18 Years of Age? Are You Responsible and Reliable?

Are You Interested In History?

Are You Interested in Volunteering for Community Service?

Kern Valley Museum Junior Docents are rewarded by learning about the history of our Valley and volunteering their time to share that history with Museum visitors. The rich history of the Kern River Valley includes our:

- * Native Americans
- * Gold Mining
- * Movie Making
- * Building of the Dam
- * Hydroelectric Power
- * AND, much More!

Training as a new Junior Docent includes:

- * A tour through the Museum
- * A booklet with information about exhibits
- * A monthly calendar and a reminder call
- * A substitute any time it is necessary
- * On-the-job training and supervision

Volunteer Hours: Thurs. - Sun., 10:00 am - 1:00 pm
Thurs. - Sun., 1:00 - 4:00 pm

Time Commitment: One 3-hour shift per month

Interested?? Questions ??? Call the Museum: 760-376-6683

- - - Steps To Become a Junior Docent - - -

1. Become a member of the Kern River Valley Historical Society

Applications are available at the Museum, online at KRVHS.org, or scan the QR Code.

2. Get Permission – includes Supporting, Encouraging, and Transporting Junior Docent to and from their monthly shift at the Museum. Have your parent or guardian complete Section “A” below.
3. Complete Section “B” below and return the form to the Museum either by Mail, Email, or bring it to the Museum.

Mail: Kern Valley Museum
Attn: Docent Chairperson
PO Box 651
Kernville, CA 93238

Email: docent.chair@krvhs.org
Phone: 760-376-6683

Part “A”

Junior Docent Application

I am the parent/guardian of _____ and give my permission for my Please Print Student Name child to volunteer at the Kern Valley Museum. I also agree to support his/her volunteer time by transporting him/her to the museum to perform their Junior Docent Duties.

Print Parent/Guardian Name: _____ Signature: _____

Part “B”

Print Student Name: _____ Print Student Address: _____

Print Student Phone Number: _____ Print Student email: _____

Student: Write in 100 words or less: (1) why you wish to be a Junior Docent and (2) what you hope to gain from your experience as a Junior Docent. (You may use an addition piece of paper, if necessary)

Signature of Student: _____ Date: _____